Early Alert Faculty Survey Spring 2012

The Banner Early Alert System here at COS has been in use for about six semesters. At this time we are surveying all faculty members to determine the ease of use, identify problems, and determine how many instructors have an alternative early alert method.

1) Did you use the Early Alert System during the Spring 2012 term?
   ☐ Yes
   ☐ No

2) Please identify the reason you did not participate in the Early Alert System (choose one only)
   ☐ I already have a system in place for communicating these concerns to my students.
   ☐ The Early Alert process is too time consuming for my workload
   ☐ I was not informed about the Early Alert System
   ☐ I don’t see the value in the Early Alert System

3) Has the Early Alert system strengthened communications with students you have "alerted?" (choose one only)
   ☐ Yes, in most cases an alert has strengthened communications with "alerted" students.
   ☐ Mixed. With some students an alert has strengthened communications, but in just as many cases it has not.
   ☐ No, in most cases an alert has not strengthened communications with "alerted" students.

4) How would you describe its ease of use in Banner:
   ☐ Very Easy
   ☐ Easy
   ☐ Difficult
   ☐ Very Difficult

5) Briefly, what problem or difficulties you have encountered with use of the Early Alert System? (250 characters)

________________________________________________________________________________________
6) Overall, how effective has the Early Alert System been in changing/improving the success of alerted students in your courses?

- Very Effective
- Effective
- Ineffective
- Very Ineffective

Thank you for taking a few minutes to complete the survey. Planning and Research will compile the results of the survey and present them in aggregate form. Your answers, thoughts, observations, and suggestions will be anonymous. The identities of the students' are anonymous as well.
