When you look into a mirror, do you see what you want of yourself or do you see what the world wants of you? The dialog forms through the struggle to reach an agreement with ourselves and the image reflected back at us.

CONCEPT DIAGRAM

No Scale