Just as gum sticks to your shoe, this structure will stick to the surrounding buildings, linking them together. It’s made of a material that changes color according to temperature, that way in the summer it’s a beautiful array of red, orange, and yellow. Whereas in the winter it’s a mystic shade of blues.