Institutional Learning Outcomes

Quantitative Reasoning
Apply quantitative and symbolic reasoning to obtain objective solutions to problems and equations.

Writing and Reading
Write coherently and effectively, adjusting to a variety of audiences and purposes, while taking into account others' writings and ideas.

Creative/Analytic Thinking
Use appropriate creative and analytic methods to interpret ideas, solve problems, and present conclusions.

Oral and Listening Skills
Communicate effectively for a given purpose within the specific context of a communication event.

Information Literacy
Locate, evaluate and use information from a variety of sources to take action or make a decision.

Social Interaction
Demonstrate effective self-management and interpersonal skills with people from a variety of backgrounds to seek consensus, resolve conflicts and take responsibility.

Health and Wellness
Participate in active living and self-care practices that support health and wellness.

Global Awareness
Demonstrate awareness, respect, sensitivity, and understanding needed for participating successfully in a diverse, local and global society.