COS Accreditation Response Task Force

Accreditation Response Task Force will operate under the authority of the COS Board of Trustees through the COS superintendent/president as the Board designee.

The Response Task Force is charged with the responsibility to study all 2012 accreditation recommendations from the ACCJC order to “Show Cause,” and develop/revise and implement any policies/procedures/plans/timelines necessary to fully comply with all ACCJC requirements by October 15, 2013.

The Response Task Force will meet weekly to develop and monitor an ongoing agenda of tasks, timelines and implementation progress. Meeting notes will be maintained and published for all faculty, staff, students via COS eNEWS.

In addition, the RTF work will delegate work to sub-groups of the full Response Task Force.

Subgroups will further engage and collaborate with the greater college community including faculty, staff and students by making opportunities available (meetings, surveys, etc.) for broader involvement and participation. Sub-group meetings, surveys, processes will be recorded in sub-group notes and published via COS eNEWS.

Public reports will be made to the COS Board of Trustees at each of their regularly scheduled meetings throughout the duration of this process.

The COS Public Information office will maintain a regular schedule reports to the public through a publication entitled, “COS 2.0” This publication will highlight ongoing activities of the COS Accreditation Response Task Force, COS Academic Senate and COS employee unions.

COS Accreditation Community Advisory Committee

The COS Accreditation Advisory Committee will meet every two weeks. This committee will comprised of community supporters from throughout the COS district including our three campus cities, Visalia, Hanford and Tulare.

The ACAC will be presented with regular updates on the Response Task Force plans for full compliance.

They will provide input/feedback/recommendations to the Response Task Force from a community perspective.

They will review and monitor Response Task Force progress and serve in an advisory capacity to the COS president and Board of Trustees should concerns arise.

They will be an important liaison and COS advocate to the broader community in sharing accurate information/updates and progress reports.

They may request to observe/participate in any Response Task Force committee work at any level.

They will be asked to express their collective experiences in a summary document written on behalf of the ACAC to be included as part of the COS Accreditation Report to be submitted to the ACCJC for their planned visit on October 15, 2012.
