SUBJECT AREA AND COURSE NUMBER: SMED 184

COURSE TITLE: ATHLETIC TRAINING CLINICAL 4

UNITS/HOURS Units: 2

CATALOG COURSE DESCRIPTION: A clinical practicum course will allow the athletic training student to experience in the athletic training room provides the student to work under the supervision and assistance of a Certified Athletic Trainer in a college setting. Emphasis will be placed on recognition, acute management, and evaluation of athletic injuries.

OUTCOMES:
1. Describe and explain a plan for handling emergency situations within the different athletic arenas.
2. Assess the types of shock and their management.
3. Describe the various phases of injury assessment.
4. Explain and demonstrate the protocol for assessing an athletic injury.
5. Explain the importance of controlling swelling during initial injury management.
6. Explain how an athlete should be protected from exposure to the different type of environmental conditions.

REQUISITES: Advisories: SMED 040