

Instructional and Laboratory Facilities

College of the Sequoias provides the instructional and laboratory facilities needed to support each of the academic programs offered. You may contact the chairperson for the academic department for specific information about the facilities and resources available to support each program.

The Academic Departments may be found online at <http://www.cos.edu/Academics>.