COS COLLEGE OF THE SEQUOIAS

Big News: An Evening With Tesla Co-Founder
Marc Tarpenning
Friday, March 1, 2019
7:00 p.m.

Event Overview
Marc Tarpenning, entrepreneur and engineer, will talk about his career, the future of technology, and what he's doing at Tesla. He will also talk about the future of technology and what he's doing at Tesla.

Biography
Marc Tarpenning started building and programming computers as a teenager and earned a degree in Computer Science from UC Berkeley. In 1997, he founded Tesla Motors, an electric vehicle and energy company. Since then, he has led the company to become one of the most valuable companies in the world. He is currently the CEO of Tesla Motors.

"Often, you will promote a valued employee into a managerial position, and they don't have any managerial experience," said Bruce Nicotero, who runs the JoAnn Stores distribution center in the Visalia Industrial Park. For Nicotero and other employers, there's an appreciation for the work the college is doing not only to help employers today, but also to help build momentum for the South Valley Industrial Collaborative. Thanks, California Forward for the recognition!
