

Constitution Day

College of the Sequoias' Student Senate is responsible for hosting an annual Constitution Day on September 17th or on the closest day of instruction. To honor the day, an informational table is reserved on the main quad of the Visalia Campus during the mid-day. Booklets of the U.S. Constitution in both English and Spanish are distributed to the public.