Follow-Up

Initiative

Initiative Name: Update DECOS By-Laws

Initiative: Update DECOS By-Laws to reflect incorporating adjunct membership, additional members as needed, and current practices of the committee as far as meeting frequency, submitting agenda items, and sharing meeting documents.

Initiative Status: Active

Academic Years: 2024 - 2025

Start Date: 10/01/2024

Result

Result Date: 01/13/2025

Results: DECOS By-Laws were updated to reflect adjunct membership, an increased quorum size, an extended deadline for adding agenda items, and updated method of sharing out of meeting documents to ensure greater transparency. Additional changes were made at the end of the year to allow part-time faculty to represent divisions that cannot produce a full-time representative, and to reflect the new structure of DECOS as a subcommittee of the Academic Senate.

Report Type: End-of-Year

Result: Satisfactory

Initiative

Initiative Name: Establish systems and infrastructure to support new online certification requirements established in the new COSTA and COSAFA Collective Bargaining Agreements.

Initiative: Establish systems and infrastructure to support new online certification requirements established in the new COSTA and COSAFA Collective Bargaining Agreements.

Initiative Status: Active

Academic Years: 2024 - 2025

Start Date: 10/01/2024

Result

Result Date: 05/06/2025

Results: DECOS researched and approved 25 external distance education certification training programs and compiled them into a list for faculty. An accompanying DE certification course approval process was created for faculty who have taken courses outside of the blanket-approved list.

A peer online course review (POCR) team was recruited and trained. A customized online course quality rubric was developed, combining aspects of the CVC-OEI rubric and the ACCJC DE rubric into a comprehensive set of standards for online courses at COS. Peer review will launch in Fall 2025 using this rubric and the trained team. A framework of the Peer Review process was created and approved by DECOS.

An Online Teaching and Design course is replacing the former Online Teaching Certificate Program also launching in Fall 2025.

Sign-up forms have been created for both peer review and the Online Teaching and Design course.

Systems and infrastructure to support new online certification requirements have been established.
