

General Education – Course Evaluation

Category	Exceptional	Satisfactory	Does Not Meet	Comments
Course Description - A short statement which informs about the subject matter, approach, breadth, and applicability of the course.	The course description is clearly connected to the GE area descriptor. □	The course description is sufficiently connected to the GE area descriptor. □	The course description is not presented or is not connected to the GE area descriptor. □	Click here to enter text.
Student Learning Outcomes - Are statements that describes significant and essential learning that learners have achieved and can reliably demonstrate at the end of a course.	The Student Learning Outcomes clearly connects to the course objectives, course topics, and GE area descriptors. □	The Student Learning Outcomes sufficiently connects to the course objectives, course topics, and GE area descriptors. □	The Student Learning Outcomes are not presented or are not connected to the course objectives, course topics, and GE area descriptors. □	Click here to enter text.
Course Objectives - Are clear and concise statements that describe the expectations of student learning.	The course objectives clearly connects to the course description and topics. □	The course objectives sufficiently connects to the course description and topics. □	The course objectives are not presented or are not connected to the course description and topics. □	Click here to enter text.
Course Topics – Are subjects or themes that represent the context of the course.	The course topics are clearly connected to the GE area descriptor. □	The course topics are sufficiently connected to the GE area descriptor. □	The course topics does not present or are not connected to the GE area descriptor. □	Click here to enter text.

All four categories must meet the Satisfactory level to be forward to the Curriculum Committee.

Additional comments:

Click here to enter text.